

List of the areas having difficulty delivering postal items due to the Great East Japan Earthquake

Areas having difficulty delivering postal items caused by the Pacific Ocean earthquake are as indicated in the table below.

Please note that in spite of all our efforts we may not be able to deliver certain items addressed to the areas that are not indicated in the table as the addressees' homes had been demolished and/or the addressees cannot be located due to their evacuation.

Your kind understanding of our situation would be appreciated.
