10th New Zealand National Philatelic Literature Exhibition

Held by the Manawatu Philatelic Society under the Patronage of the New Zealand Philatelic Federation and with support from the Central Districts Philatelic Trust and the New Zealand Philatelic Trust Inc.

Palmerston North, 30th June 2007

The judging team [Allan P. Berry FRPSL, FRPSNZ (Chairman), Norman Banfield FRPSNZ, Ross Marshall, FRPSNZ, Jenny Banfield (apprentice), Colin Larsen (apprentice)] thank the Central Districts Philatelic Trust, chaired by Graeme Russell, for their initiative in organising this exhibition, the entrants for their willingness to make their knowledge and research available to others, and Tony Thackery for the use of the premises of Opie & Dron, Solicitors, for judging. Philatelic literature is vital for the well-being of the hobby, and the large entry recorded here shows it is in good health.

Entries were judged in accordance with the New Zealand Philatelic Federation mark sheets. Three entries were adjudged hors concours as outside the competition's scope or rules, 38 as material relating to an exhibition, 39 as publicity for publications, and 91 because the minimum of a year's production of this periodical was not submitted. Allan P Berry took no part in judging entry numbers 74, 76, 88, 94 and 105, Norman Banfield in judging entry number 97, and Ross Marshall in judging entry numbers 97 and 108.

Awards were made between bronze and large gold standards. The Grand Award was awarded to Franco Frescura of South Africa for The Post Offices of the Cape of Good Hope 1792-1910, Volumes 1 and 2 (entry number 55). This was also awarded Felicitations for the extensive research involved in the work in spite of the fact that felicitations have previously only been awarded to publications concerning the Pacific region. The Grand Award Runner up was awarded to Abed H. Najjar for The Postal History of Jordan 1400-1959 (entry number 57). Special prizes were awarded to The Collectors' Club Philatelist (entry number 82) as the best periodical and Pochta as the best CD-ROM (entry number 108). Felicitations were also awarded to The 1893 New Zealand Advertisement Stamps (entry number 2) for the continuing research entailed in this publication.
